JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 9 March 1960

1. A group from the 85th Congress called "The Acorns" met with Agency people at breakfast for an informal briefing. Those present are indicated on the attached list. After breakfast the Director discussed our relationships with the Congress including CIA Subcommittee arrangements and the numbers of appearances before Congress in the last few years. The Director then explained the organization of the Agency utilizing an organizational chart. There were numerous questions and the group appeared to have an intense interest in learning about the Agency. Comments of the members as they were departing indicated they found it extremely interesting and useful.
